JUNIOR GRANGER APPOINTED TO KAB ADVISORY BOARD

Dana Langer, 13 year old Junior Granger from Robbinsville, N.J., has been appointed to serve on a 15member Youth Advisory Board of Keep America Beautiful, Inc.

Dana will serve a one year term during which time he and the other 14 members will review KAB youth projects and materials. The Board, established last year, includes representatives of national youth organizations, student ecology groups and other young people interested in community improvement.

Dana will attend his first Board meeting on Aug. 28 in New York City. He is a member of Hamilton Junior Grange, Mercer County, and served as 1971 New Jersey Junior Grange Prince.

NEW FIRE SAFETY CODE REGULATIONS

BEGIN TO PREPARE

This title refers to the new Fire Safety Code regulations which were made effective November 30th, 1971, and must be complied to by 1974.

These new safety standards are going to mean, whether we like it or not, the installation of safety devices in most of our Grange Halls. The extent a Grange will have to go to in complying with the regulations will, in most cases, be decided by the local Fire Marshall. However, the new regulations are so extensive that most towns are finding it necessary to hire full time Fire Marshalls, who will become trained professional people. These professionals may view fire regulations with a different and stricter attitude than the present part-time man. We suggest Granges owning their own halls "Begin to Prepare" because there is a possible expense involved of a hundred plus dollars up to several hundred.

The need for the Granges preparing was brought to the attention of the State Grange Executive Committee by Mr. C.C. Gumbert of Engineering Protection Co., Old Robertsville Rd., Winsted, Conn. 06098, phone 379-2821. Mr. Gumbert is a former member of Riverton Grange. He has agreed to meet and to work with Grange groups, on a Pomona

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S (LITTERED) DESK

This article is concerning the action of the two U.S. athletes performing in the Olympics who won Gold and Silver Medals in the 400 meter event. Their actions at the awards ceremony during the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" were disgusting, to say the least.

The Connecticut Granger has always endeavored to refrain from becoming involved in controversial subjects. Possibly this editorial will change the pattern, at least briefly.

As seen by many and reported from reliable sources: As the first notes of the "Star Spangled Banner" were played, the #2 winner stepped from his tier, joined his #1 triumphant teammate where the two were observed chatting, laughing and comparing their medals as the flags were being hoisted.

When confronted with their action, one said, "he meant no disrespect," the other, "he could not stand at attention for something he didn't believe in." By their actions it becomes apparent they are representing no country, only taking advan-

Supposedly the international athletic competition of the Olympics is to maintain harmony among the nations participating. Matthews' and Collett's actions, as witnessed by millions in many countries, falls far short of the fulfilling of this major role. There is a question as to the value of the Olympic Competition, unless such disgusting and insulting episodes can be controlled. Evidently some feel the U.S. athlete has not been used fairly during the Olympics competition in Germany. If this is true, and apparently it is in the mind of many, it is a shame. However, such actions of disrespect for our National Anthem and American flag should not be tolerated and call for more drastic action than losing Olympic medals and then having them returned.

level, concerning the new regulations and the possible needs of some of our halls. Naturally he has a product to sell, being in the safety-protection business, but his main concern is that we realize the seriousness of the problem.

Mr. Gumbert states, "Let's inform the Granges of the new regulations that they will be enforced and then if they like my products and want to purchase their needs from me, fine."

These new regulations are found in the Administration Regulations manual and we would suggest that Granges owning their halls secure one from the Connecticut State Fire Marshall's office, Washington Street, Hartford, Conn. 06106. Grange Halls will come under the Assembly Classification.

The October 14th meeting, previously scheduled for the workers on the 1972 Committee for Hosting the National Grange, has been cancelled. It will be held later following our State Grange Session this October. The date, time and place will be announced at a later date. Just too many things taking place right now as we prepare for the state session.

SLIDE PRESENTATIONS

If you are interested in arranging a program of slides for your members, we have two folks in Connecticut who are always more than willing to share their time and talent with you. Brother and Sister Arthur and Althea Driscoll of 15 Stinson Place, Windsor (telephone 688-3994), have a variety of subjects which they cover with slides and commentary and they would be happy to arrange to visit your Grange.

HARRY A. CATON

Harry A. Caton, known to many as "Mr. Grange," passed away Sunday, August 27, 1972, at his home in Coshocton, Ohio. Brother Caton would have celebrated his 92nd birthday this October.

Brother Caton was elected Secretary Emeritus of the National Grange in 1965 after serving as National Secretary from 1928 to 1965. He held a national office longer than anyone else in the history of the National Grange. During his years as National Secretary he processed over 10,000 Subordinate Granges. In 1965, at the age of 31 he declined re-election as National Secretary. At that time, he was the only State Master to have served as National Secretary.

In a recent correspondence to the National office, Brother Caton said, "All in all, I've had a long and, I trust, a useful life it is well."

Funeral services were held Wednesday, August 30, at the Baptist Church in Coshocaus.

NATIONAL GRANGE SETS SESSION ACTIVITIES

The National Grange announced its meeting schedule for its 106th Annual Session to be held this year in Hartford, Conn., Nov. 13-21.

On Sunday evening, Nov. 12, prior to the official opening of the Session, the Connecticut State Grange will host a banquet for Grange delegates and officers. Governor Thomas Meskill has been invited to be the guest speaker.

The convention will officially open at 9:30 a.m., Monday, Nov. 13. At 10:15 the Session will be open to the public and Mayor George Athanson of Hartford will welcome the delegates to Hartford. The Session will remain open to the public through John Scott's annual Master's address after which the Session will be closed to the public and delegates will begin working on committee reports and other Session business. Monday afternoon the first of 13 committee reports will be presented for discussion, debate and vote by the delegates. Action taken on these reports throughout the 10 day Session will determine Grange policy for 1973.

Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, delegates and officers will be hosted at a banquet sponsored by the National Grange Mutual Insurance Company of Keene, New Hampshire. The following morning, Wed., Nov. 15, Farmers and Traders Life Insurance Company will host a breakfast.

Wednesday afternoon candidates for 1973 National Grange Young Couple of the Year, Prince and Princess, as well as other youth representatives, will arrive for the beginning of Youth Activities days which will continue through Sat., Nov. 18.

Thursday evening, Nov. 16, at the Women's Activities Banquet, the Grand Award Winners of the 1972 National Grange Sewing Contest and 1972 Needlework Contest will be announced, as well as other national and state awards.

Friday, Nov. 17, Secretary of Agriculture, Earl Butz, will be the guest speaker at the Rural America Luncheon. Following the luncheon the Family Musical Finals and Talent Contest will be held.

Saturday, Nov. 18, is Degree Day. The Grange is a fraternal organization and the highest degree of the Order is the Seventh which can only be taken at a National Session. Conferrals will be held at the Bushnell Auditorium.

Saturday evening, Grange youth culminate their activites with a banquet at the Hartford Hilton, followed by the selection and coronation of the 1973 Young Couple of the Year, Prince and Princess at the Bushnell Auditorium and then back to the Hartford Hilton for a Coronation Ball.

Sunday, Nov. 19, will begin with church services followed by a luncheon and Connecticut tour which will include a visit to Mystic Seaport.

Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 20 and 21, the Grange will finish their committee reports and other business and adjourn until Nov. 12, 1973, at which time they will meet in Lincoln, Nebraska.

MESSAGE FROM THE MASTER:

As the zero hour approaches for our busy fall season, I would like to urge your continued support and cooperation. The magnitude of the items that need doing begins to mount. Every day the mails bring additional work to be done. The ten days from November 12th through the 21st are bearing down upon us. For five years we have planned and worried about this period. Now we shall soon see the results of our labors.

As this article is being written we are in full swing with installations. Many new officers will be installed. Some have been in office before, but many are new and need help. Schools of instruction are being held early this year in an effort to get these new officers off to a good start. I especially urge the Masters, Overseers, Stewards and Gatekeepers to attend, not only the schools of instruction, but also the Masters and Overseers meetings which are generally held shortly after the schools.

It is most important that we urge and encourage our Membership Committees to keep up their excellent work in getting new members. There is still time to give them all six degrees if you plan right.

Our State Session, October 19-21, promises to be a good meeting, with lots of activity. Every member is invited to attend and stay as long as possible. The whole session, except for the opening Thursday morning and the degree work Friday night, will be open in the 4th degree.

I thank every one who has helped make the past Grange year a success.

Fraternally, William W. Pearl, Master Connecticut State Grange

NATIONAL GRANGE TO OFFER TWO $500 SCHOLARSHIPS

The National Grange is offering two $500 scholarships for the 1973-74 school year, to Grange youth who will have completed two years of college by June, 1973 and are majoring in some form of agriculture communications.

The announcement of the scholarships was made today by Mrs. Judy Massabny, Director of Information, for the National Grange. Mrs. Massabny said, "The National Grange feels a responsibility in encouraging more young people to seek careers in agriculture communications. Agriculture, which is still the country's leading industry, needs people who can write, broadcast and discuss its complexities in terms that everyone can understand. Since the country seems to be more in tune with urban problems, rural news has a tendency to get lost or ignored. The more competent people we have in agriculture communications, the better are our chances to improve relations and understanding between rural and urban interests."

Applications for the National Grange scholarships are available from the Information Department, National Grange, 1616 H St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20006. The two scholarships offered for the 1973-74 school year will be awarded by July 1, 1973. Applications must be filed by April 1, 1973. Interested applicants should be the following: (1) Grange member in good standing; (2) at least a sophomore in college; and (3) majoring in some form of agriculture communications at an accredited college or university.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HUMAN RELATIONS

- Speak to people. There is nothing as nice as a cheerful word of greeting.
- 2. Smile at people. It takes 72 muscles to frown, only 14 to smile.
- Call people by name. The sweetest music to anyone's ears is the sound of his own name.
- 4. Be friendly and helpful. If you would like to have friends, be one!
- Be cordial. Speak and act as if everything you do were a real pleasure.
- Be genuinely interested in people. You can like everyone if you try.

- Be generous with praises . . . cautious with criticism.
- 8. Be considerate with the feelings of others. It will be appreciated.
- Be thoughtful of the opinions of others. There are THREE sides to a controversy — yours, the other fellow's, and the right one.
- Be alert to give service. What counts most in life is what we do for others.

SUGGESTION FOR LECTURERS

As we enter the fall season, many of our Granges will be conferring degrees a little early this year in preparation for the National Session. The harvest theme is always appropriate so may we suggest that those who have programs to put on during the month take advantage of the wealth of material provided by this most beautiful and meaningful time of year.

You might ask a few of your members to bring in some fruits and vegetables from their own gardens and arrange the things in a 'still life' upon the stage. Of course a cornucopia is always good and may be used in any effective manner. A spot light adds a great deal to the picture. If you would rather have people in your tableau, it is a fine time to call upon your Graces to wear robes and carry baskets filled with the products. A brother dressed as a farmer could add still another touch that is most appropriate.

READER: The Harvest

Reapers have been busy with The harvesting of fields Which have responded to earth's call

With rich abundant yields.

The sickles clicking merrily Seem pleased with nature's plan Of planting, growth and harvesting The food required by man.

Thick upon the stubbled land, The shocks of ripened grain Are Springtime's promises fulfilled By summer's sun and rain.

To grace this cornucopia
Of nature's treasure trove,
The harvest moon spreads eerie charm

On fruited field and grove.

Any one of the harvest songs from the PATRON could be used to end the number. It could be sung as a solo or by everyone.

The Connecticut State Grange, headed by Mr. and Mrs. William W. Pearl of Hampton, will host the 106th Annual Session of the National Grange, November 13-21, in Hartford. This is the third time in the 106 year history of the National Grange that the Connecticut State Grange will host the Session. The previous times were 1907 and 1934.

Kingsley Beecher of Winsted issued the invitation to the National Grange five years ago when he was serving as Master of the Connecticut State Grange. The delegate body accepted the invitation and plans were begun immediately to select a city with enough facilities to house the national rural organization. Hartford was selected and the Hartford Hilton Hotel was designated as headquarters for the 10 day Session.

Thousands of Grange members in Connecticut and throughout New England have been involved in the Session plans. It is expected that 10,000 Grange members from all across the country will attend some portion of the Session. Most members attending will be from the New England states.

SAFETY—HOW TO KEEP FROM GROWING OLD

(Sent from Falls Village)

Drive as fast as you can on wet or slippery pavement or highways. There is always something to stop you if you lose control of your automobile.

Never stop, look, or listen at railroad crossings, because in so doing people might think you are timid.

Always speed. It makes you appear as though you are a person of great PEP even though you are in reality but an amateur driver.

Always pass the automobile ahead of you on a curve. It is loads of fun to be surprised at what you can run into coming "head-on" around the curve.

Don't use your horn. It might frighten the other driver and make him pull over too far.

Demand half of the road—te sure it's the MIDDLE HALF. Insist on your "rights."

Always pass cars on hills when possible. It shows your car's power and you can always turn out if you should meet someone at the crest of the hill.

Always take the shortest route around left-hand turns. The other fellow ought to be able to take care of himself if you can.

Never yield the 'right of way.' If the other fellow is crazy show him what real insanity is.

Always make turns from the wrong lane of traffic. If the other fellow is not a mind reader, it's his own fault.

Never stop at "stop" signs. You have as much right to use the highways and streets as anyone else.

On the other hand, if you want to live to a "ripe old age," use COM-MON SENSE when driving.

ECOLOGY

"The last echo of Life is heard in the Plants"

It has long been evident that toxic compounds are widely distributed among organisms living in the ocean. DDT residues have been found in analysed specimens of the Bermuda petrel, which ranges over most of the North Atlantic, feeds entirely at sea and visits land only to breed. This bird is in danger of becoming extinct by 1978, unless something is done about the contamination of its feeding areas.

Traces of DDT were also found in penguins in the Antarctic. The pesticide has been cited as the cause of population declines of many fisheating birds, such as bald eagles, brown pelicans and peregrine falcons. Some catches of fish have been banned in interstate commerce because of unsafe levels of toxic materials.

After much controversy, an almost total ban on the use of DDT in the United States has been ordered by the Federal Government. The ban will become effective December 31, 1972, unless court rulings decide otherwise. This decision has been challenged in court by the 27 companies that use DDT as part of their pesticide products. Their contention is that the evidence submitted as to benefits compared with risks of DDT has not been seriously evaluated.

One puzzling aspect of the ban is that it does not bar export of DDT. The insecticide is used in underdeveloped countries to control malaria, other diseases and also to eradicate insect damage to crops. The thinking behind it all seems to be that DDT used in Georgia to control the boll weevil is harmful to the Bermuda petrel, but its use elsewhere is another matter.

Autumn's Indian Braves

The autumn leaves are not just leaves.

That is, they're not to me. They are a tribe of Indians As brave as they can be.

I saw some creep across our walk, In all their bright array And hold a pow-wow by a tree In our front yard today.

And then they did a tribal dance. It was, indeed, a show.

And soon they dashed away to hunt

Just what, I'll never know.

October 12th we all know as Columbus Day. Can you name the three ships which he came over in?

(Pinta, Nina, Santa Maria)
Once Columbus was a boy like me
But he grew to be a man and crossed the unknown sea.

And found a brand new country, in 1492

Our great and good and grand America

I'm glad he did, aren't you? Corncob Dolls

Clean corncobs and dry them for a few days.

To make an Indian doll, put eyes, nose, and mouth on the large end of the cob, using ink or paint. Paste on black yarn for hair, braided or left loose.

Add a beaded band or a cloth band and a feather. Paste on a dress of tan cloth to resemble leather, fitting it about an inch below the face. Decorate it with beads or paint. Cut out arms, hands, and feet from paper. Paste in place.

Make other dolls, using corncobs.

Dorothy Mattson,

ABOUT THAT COW . . .

WASHINGTON — Sometimes the answers on federal forms can be funnier than the questions.

For example, the Agriculture Department once received a letter from a farmer whose cow was killed by one of the department's trucks. The department responded with an apology and a form to be filled out. It included a space for "disposition of the dead cow." Replied the farmer: "kind and gentle."

MERIDEN #29 . Helen Reed, Corr.

At a recent meeting a successful ice-cream party was held. We held a Fair Committee meeting and picnic at the Hazelwoods. Our Fair on Sept. 15-16, with a Ham Dinner on Saturday, was a success, due to the hard work of the committee.

MATTABESSETF #42 E. Kropack, Corr.

We have held our picnics this past summer. Thank you for the patronage at the Connecticut Agriculture Fair at Durham food booth. It took much effort to raise some cash to help pay the Grange bills.

The past year activities and programs have been good at Mattabessett, Middletown, and we look forward to a satisfactory new Grange year. Come and visit us on the second and fourth Saturdays.

EAST HAMPTON Ellen Coughlin, Corr.

On Sept. 17, the officers were installed by Bro. Alfred C. Beckwith and his installing team. Oct. 11, the sisters will be in charge of the program and on Oct. 25, the brothers will be in charge. The second meeting in Nov. will be omitted because of National Grange Session.

HEMLOCK #182 Ruth M. Stemmler, Corr.

At a recent meeting at Hemlock Hall over 100 interested citizens and Hemlock Grange representatives made plans to organize a Portland Ancient Fife and Drum Corps. About sixty young people between the ages of 8 and 18 signed up to participate. Hemlock Grange gave its approval of the corps and is loaning the use of its hall for rehearsals starting in September. Due to Hemlock's "Degree Day" to be held on Saturday, Oct. 7, the meeting of Oct. 13 will be omitted. The Oct. 27 meeting will be Neighbor's Night featuring a Halloween Masquerade.

The series of monthly suppers held during the summer were very successful and helped to swell our treasury. C.W.A., Ways and Means Committees are selling cards and novelties to bring in a few more sheckels.

GOOD WILL #127 Ruth M. Burton, Corr.

Our October meetings will be given over to Degree Work, as we still have candidates who have not taken the degrees. ENFIELD #151 Julia Pease, Corr.

Our newly installed Lecturer, Sister Helen Newcomb, will start her year with the October 2 meeting, program to be "Vacation and Conference Highlights." Spook's Night will be enjoyed October 16.

On a recent trip to the Amish Country, sponsored by the Enfield Grange, $50.00 was given by the Grange to the Pennsylvania State Grange in Harrisburg toward the relief of victims in the recent flood in Pennsylvania. Enfield Grange was the first Grange to donate to the flood.

ENFIELD DONATES TO FLOOD VICTIMS

(Copy of letter received from Penn. State Master.)

I wish to acknowledge the contribution sent by your Grange in behalf of the devastating flood that Pennsylvania suffered the past two weeks.

We are indeed grateful to you for your thoughtfulness and concern, and will see that the money is used for some worthy cause.

The Governor's Mansion here in Harrisburg had 6 feet of water on the first floor with the Susquehanna River cresting at 25 feet, 18 feet higher than normal.

Many homes and business places have been wiped out. Although we were fortunate at our State office, State Grange Headquarters, having only approximately 4 feet of water in the basement.

There were other cities and towns that were left in ruins and people evacuated. Some industries predict it will be 6 months to a year before they will again be in operation.

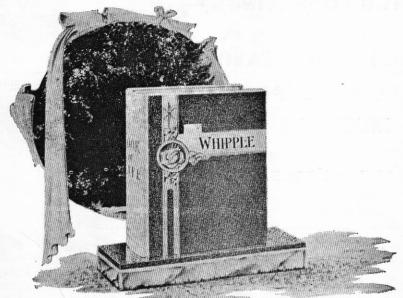

Agriculture has also suffered severely, with entire farms under water

I have reports here in the office, where farmers lost their entire herd of Holstein milking cows, one farmer buried 55 head, and crop damage and erosion will run into thousands of dollars

While there is a lot more I could tell you, I am certain you have seen or read about the severity of the storm which I hope will never again strike.
